

SUFFOLK # DAY

The Suffolk Day Song

Good folk, whether you are here to stay,
or just on your holiday,
from our lovely little market town,
we hope you will stick around.
We appear on Suffolk's map,
boutique shops and history on tap.
Nestled by the River Brett,
but there's more, we haven't finished yet.
Mr Britten would compose on our beaches we may suppose.

With our music
And our plays
Paying homage to our art.
Suffolk Radio
We will go led by Lesley Dolphin's dart.

We are from East Anglia, scenery spectacular.
From West Stow to Sutton Hoo, there is lots to see and do.
Have a picnic on the beach,
Flatford Mill is hardly out of reach.
Constable once painted here,
Adnams brew a rather lovely beer!
Come to Suffolk and you will see Ed Sheeran's castle on the hill.

It's a castle
On the hill
And we hope you'll come back soon.
Celebrate
In our way
Suffolk Day each year in June.

Suffolk Punch is not what you might think,
it's a horse and not a drink.
Suffolk's also famous for its grub,
and we have Britain's smallest pub!
Wool and silk more claims to fame,
from our shores George Orwell took his name Suffolk is the place to be, towns and country, villages and sea.
So we sing our merry Suffolk song in the hope that you'll sing along.

Sing a song
Sing along won't you join us in the fun?
Sing for pleasure
We all treasure and we welcome everyone.
